

PRIVACY POLICY AND TERMS OF USE

PRIVACY POLICY

Vistaproducts.com is a private, copyrighted site and intended solely for personal use.

CATEGORIES OF INFORMATION

Information about you can be categorized as (a) personally identifiable information, or (b) non-personally identifiable information. "Personally identifiable information" is information that we collect from you such as your name, postal address, phone number, fax number and email address. "Non-personally identifiable information" is information that we collect from you that does not include your name or any information that would allow us to contact you.

HOW WE USE AND DISCLOSE INFORMATION

Some of the ways in which we use your personally identifiable information may include using it to fulfill your orders, to provide you with information that you may request and to customize your web site experience. If, at the point where you give us personally identifiable information, a box is checked indicating that you would like to receive information about special offers and promotions, then we will also use such personally identifiable information to send you information that we believe might be of interest to you. It is important for you to understand that we use contractors (e.g., delivery services) to help us operate our business. We do, however, require that our contractors agree to not disclose personally identifiable information or use it other than as necessary to perform their services for us. Because we care about your privacy, we will not give your personally identifiable information to other marketers or retailers for them to use to contact you about offers or promotions of their own unless a box is checked indicating that we may do so at the point where you give us such personally identifiable information. As a responsible company, we believe obeying the law is important. Therefore, we may disclose personally identifiable information in order to comply with a subpoena or court order or when we are otherwise required to do so by law. We may also disclose personally identifiable information in cooperation with a law enforcement or government request. It is important for you to understand that the above policies and restrictions do not apply to our use or disclosure of your non-personally identifiable information. By using our web site, you understand and agree that we may compile and freely use and disclose non-personally identifiable information. Examples of how we use and disclose non-personally identifiable information include measuring and analyzing site usage, system administration, improving our site and providing it to third-party consultants, clients, advertisers, vendors and researchers.

HOW WE COLLECT INFORMATION

We collect personally identifiable information from you by "active" means, in other words, when you actively give us the information. Examples of this include when you order products, fill out online site registration forms, request that we send you information, newsletters or catalogs, or respond to our surveys or other requests for visitor responses. Like many other commercial web sites, we collect non-personally identifiable information from you by "passive" means, in other words, by tracking your use of the site, often through the use of cookies. That information includes, among other things, the type of computer operating system and web browser that are being used and the domain name of your internet service provider, as well as some of the information described below. This information helps us to interact with visitors to our site.

COOKIES

A cookie is a small data file that is placed on your computer's hard drive that may contain information (such as a unique user ID) that a web site may use to track certain things. We use cookies in order to improve your web site visit. The cookie helps us track the pages of our site that you visit, tells us whether you have been to our site before and tells us which web site you visited immediately before visiting our site, but does not tell us about your use of any other web sites. The cookie does not tell us who you are or how to contact you, unless you have submitted personally identifiable information to us through active means. You can keep us from using cookies by turning them off in your browser. However, if you turn off your cookies, certain parts of our web site may not function.

COLLECTION OF INFORMATION BY THIRD PARTIES VIA LINKS

Our site contains links to other sites, including, among others, those of some of our customers. Those other sites may have privacy policies that may be different from ours. Visitors using such links should consult the privacy notices associated with those links. Please keep in mind that whenever you give out personal information online – for example, via message boards or chat rooms – that information can be collected, intercepted and used by people you do not know. Our policies do not extend to anything that is inherent in the operation of the internet, and therefore beyond our control. We take no responsibility for information collected by third parties.

Protecting your order information is important to us. We use the industry standard Secret Sockets Layer (SSL) technology to protect the security of your online order information. SSL encryption is a method by which information is encrypted while being transmitted over the internet. To check the security of your connection, look for a key or lock icon in your browser window after accessing the server. If you see an unbroken key or a closed lock (depending on your browser), then SSL is active. You can also double-check by looking at the URL line of your browser. When accessing a secure browser, the first characters of the site address should change from “http” to “https.” Some versions of browsers and some firewalls don’t permit communication through secure servers. In that case, you won’t be able to connect to the server and therefore won’t be able to place an order through a non-secure connection. While no method is completely impenetrable, SSL is one of the state-of-the-art encryption technologies used in e-commerce today. Unfortunately, no data transmission over the internet can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. As a result, while we are committed to protecting your personal information, we cannot entirely ensure or warrant the security of any information you transmit to us.

ORDERS

When you place an order for a product, we need to know your name, e-mail address, mailing address, credit card number and expiration date. This personal information is required so that we can process and fulfill your order, send an order or shipping confirmation, as well as notify you of your order status. All internet transactions with Vista Products are performed on a secure server that encrypts your credit card information to ensure it is not read by unauthorized third parties.

YOUR ACCEPTANCE OF THESE TERMS

By using this site, you indicate your agreement to this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree with this Privacy Policy then do not use this site. Your continued use of this site following any changes to this privacy policy constitute your acceptance of such changes.

5. LINKS TO THIRD-PARTY WEB SITES

From time to time, Vista Products may provide links to third-party web sites. This information is provided solely as a convenience to you. If you use third-party links you will leave the site and be subject to the terms of use and privacy policy applicable on those web sites. You agree not to take any action that might compromise the security of the site, render the site inaccessible to others or otherwise cause damage to the site or the Content. You additionally agree not to use the site in any way that might interfere with the rights of other users or third parties.

8. USER-SUPPLIED INFORMATION

If you supply or post any “non-personally identifiable” (as defined in our Privacy Policy) information or material to the site, you guarantee to Vista Products that you have the legal right to post such material and that it does not violate any law or the rights of any person or entity. For any information you do send, post or submit to the site, you hereby grant Vista Products an unrestricted, royalty-free, irrevocable license to use, reproduce, display, perform, modify, transmit and distribute the same, and agree that Vista Products is free to use any ideas, concepts, know-how or techniques that you send Vista Products for any purpose whatsoever without compensation to you or any other person sending such information, and you represent and warrant that you own or otherwise control all of the rights to such information and that public posting and use of your content by Vista Products will not infringe or violate the rights of any third party. Any “personally identifiable” information that you submit to us shall be treated in accordance with our Privacy Policy.

9. PRODUCT DISPLAY/COLOR

The site attempts to display product images shown as accurately as possible. However, we cannot guarantee that the color you see identically matches the product color because the display of the color depends, in part, upon the computer monitor you are using.

10. DISCLAIMER AND LIMITATION OF WARRANTY

Vista Products makes no express or implied warranties, representations or endorsements whatsoever with respect to the site or the content. Vista Products expressly disclaims all warranties of any kind, express, implied, statutory or otherwise, including, but not limited to, implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, title and non-infringement, with regard to the site, the content, and any product furnished or to be furnished via the site. Vista Products does not warrant that the functions performed by the site will be uninterrupted, timely, secure or error-free, or that defects in the site will be corrected. Vista Products does not warrant that this site, its servers, or e-mail sent from Vista Products are free of viruses or other harmful components. Vista Products does not warrant the accuracy or completeness of the content, or that any errors in the content will be corrected. This site, and the content are provided on an “as is” and “as available” basis. If you are dissatisfied with the site, the service, the content, or with the terms of use your sole and exclusive remedy is to discontinue using the site. Vista Products, nor its affiliates, shall be liable for consequential, punitive, special, exemplary or incidental damages. Your exclusive remedy for product claims (including breach of warranty, negligence and strict liability) is limited to the repair or replacement of the products that are the subject of the claim or repayment of the purchase price paid for the products that are subject of the claim; provided, however, that the availability of such remedy(ies) may be limited by the terms of the applicable product warranty and the determination of whether to repair, replace, or repay the purchase price will be made by Vista Products, in its sole discretion subject to the terms of the applicable product warranty.

Because some states do not allow the exclusion or limitation of liability for consequential or incidental damages, some of the above limitations may not apply to you. In such states, Vista Products’ liability is limited and warranties are excluded to the greatest extent permitted by law, but shall, in no event, exceed $100.00.

11. INDEMNIFICATION

You understand and agree that you are personally responsible for your behavior on the site. You agree to indemnify, defend or hold harmless Vista Products, its affiliated companies, business partners, licensors, employees, agents, and any third-party information providers from and against all claims, losses, expenses, damages and costs (including, but not limited to, direct, incidental, consequential, exemplary and indirect damages), and reasonable attorney's fees, resulting from or arising out of your use, misuse, or inability to use the site or the Content, or any violation by you of this Agreement.
